

New Board Member at Swissquote

The Board of Directors of Swissquote Group Holding Ltd will propose to the shareholders the election of Dr Monica Dell'Anna as a member of the Board of Directors at its Annual General Meeting on 4 May 2018. The remaining five members will all stand for re-election.

"By appointing Monica Dell'Anna, we acquire an experienced business executive with a track record on digital transformation processes. We are convinced that she will be an effective addition to our Board," said Mario Fontana, Chairman of the Board.

Born in 1971, Monica Dell'Anna is a Swiss and Italian dual citizen and she serves since 2016 as a member of the Executive Board at NZZ-Mediengruppe AG with responsibility for the Business Media division. She was previously part of the Executive Board of BKW AG and spent more than ten years in various leadership roles at Swisscom. Dr Dell'Anna began her career in research before becoming a consultant at McKinsey. She studied electrical engineering in Italy and holds a doctorate in telecommunications engineering from King's College London.
